

Visibility from major highways drives commercial development along 7th Street where significant development underway. Commercial activity elsewhere in the City is below unmet retail demand.

$110 million
unmet demand for retail